Dear Neil,

It gives me great pleasure to inform that your nomination " US Army digital battlefield" is the joint winner in the category of "Customer Oriented Business Models".

This award will be given during the upcoming Awards ceremony which will be held on the evening of July 28, 2011 at Hotel Le Meridian, Bangalore.

The Award ceremony will be attended by more than 250 top IT and management professionals including award recipients from over 10 countries. In addition, speakers and CXOs who are part of the Architecture World Summit scheduled to be held in Bangalore on July 27-28, 2011 are also expected to be present during the Awards ceremony.

I trust you will plan your travel and stay accordingly and do let me know if you have any queries.

Best Regards,
Sunil Dutt Jha
