

NOTE: This diagram and those that follow are for illustrative purposes only and the determination of risk class for a particular device should be made by referring to the rules themselves and not the decision trees. Where a medical device has features that place it into more than one class, conformity assessment should be based on the highest class indicated.

INVASIVE DEVICES (2 of 2)

